(LOOKSTOCK, MAUREL, MCQUEEN, and FIPP exit. PENNY shoots out instructions to the POOR.)

PENNY

All right, folks, you know the drill. Form a line and have yer money ready. We'll not be repeating yesterday's fiasco, and that means you, Old Man Strong.
(THE POOR crowd around the amenity, forming a line.)

.. Four hundred and ninety-six. Four hundred and ninety-seven. Just a few more.
(MCQUEEN enters, now on his way to work. LITTLE SALLY rushes toward him, her hand stretched out in supplication.)

Penny for a pee, sir?
(MCQUEEN exits. SENATOR FIPP enters.)

Please, sir, spare a penny for a morning pee, sir?

What's that?

Or a nickel or a dime?

Out of my way, child! I've peeing of my own to tend to.

But-

(FIPP exits. LITTLE SALLY joins the crowd. At the entrance to the amenity, OLD MAN STRONG is arguing with PENNY.)

OLD MAN STRONG

I haven't got it!

PENNY

Then go get it!

OLD MAN STRONG

C'mon, Penny, I'm good for it.

PENNY

That's what you said last week and I still haven't seen penny one. And it's Ms. Pennywise to you.

OLD MAN STRONG

Bobby! Bobby, reason with the woman. I'm a little short this morning.

TINY TOM

BOBBY

He's my pa, Ms. Pennywise. Can't he come in for free? Just this once?

PENNY

Get your head out of the clouds, Bobby Strong. No one gets in for free.

OLD MAN STRONG

Now, Ms. Pennywise, we've all had to make special...arrangements with people in high places over the years. Why not let this one be ours?

PENNY

[REDACTED] Quiet back there. No one's gettin' anywhere for free! Don't you think I have bills of my own to pay?! Don't you think I have taxes and tariffs and payoffs to meet too?! Well, I do!

(Musical vamp for "It's a Privilege to Pee" begins.)

#3A It's A Privilege To Pee

PENNY

And I don't pay them with promises, see. I pay them with cash! Cold hard cash. Every morning you all come here. And every morning some of you got reasons why ya ain't gonna pay. And I'm here to tell ya, ya is gonna pay!
